Active- Signature Membership

is invitational and is contingent upon an artist having two (2) paintings accepted by jurors in TWS annual Exhibitions. Retroactive credit may be granted for a painting accepted in prior TWS Annual Exhibitions. Membership is defined by a vote by the Board of Directors. Upon payment of current year's dues ($35) and verification, Active Signature Members have the privilege of using the initials "TWS" after their signature.

Termination and Reinstatement

Any member resigning or ceasing to be a member shall forfeit all interest in the property of the Society. After a two-year period of time, active membership may be reinstated by paying one year's back dues plus current year's dues. Signature members who are delinquent over two years may regain membership under procedures specified for new candidates.

Sage Brush Society Membership

The purpose of Sage Brush Society is to honor those active-signature members in the TWS who have continued to promote the advancement of watercolor through professional competitions. It is based on a point system with points awarded for acceptance in juried shows. These points must be accrued from the date of election to Signature Membership in the TWS.

There are two levels of membership

The Sage Brush (SB) Active Signature members of TWS who have acquired 50 points by being accepted and/or receiving awards in recognized competitions.

The Purple Sage Brush (PS)

Active Signature members of TWS who have acquired 75 points by being accepted and/or receiving awards in recognized competitions.
